

WINTER PARK NAMED BEST SKI RESORT IN NORTH AMERICA BY USA TODAY

WINTER PARK, Colo. – The esteemed readers of USA Today have realized what people in Colorado have known for generations, naming Winter Park Resort the top ski resort in North America as part of the annual 10Best reader’s poll.

After being selected by a panel of skiing/snowboarding experts as one of 20 finalists, Winter Park took the top spot by claiming the most votes cast by readers over a two month period.

Readers noted Winter Park’s 3,081 acres of skiable terrain, friendly atmosphere, and easy access from Denver via the Winter Park Express ski train as reasons for the top ranking. For the full list, please visit: <https://www.10best.com/awards/travel/best-ski-resort-2018/>

In addition to national accolades, this winter is already proving to be a banner one at Winter Park thanks in part to 90” of total snowfall this early season. In the month of December alone, Winter Park has racked up 23” of snow, having registered accumulating snowfall on every day of the month but one. In the next couple weeks Winter Park’s new 10-person gondola will be open to the public and on January 4, the Winter Park Express train service begins its third season of operation.
